

Pullman Public Schools Social Media Commenting Guidelines Updated 01.11.22

All of our social media pages will focus on celebrating and supporting our schools, students, and staff, as well as sharing important news and communicating event information. We encourage you to share your support, connect with other supporters, and visit frequently for news and updates.

While everyone is welcome and encouraged to comment, our first priority is to protect students, staff, and community members. Comments and/or posts that do not follow this Commenting Guideline may be removed.

Please be courteous, productive, and exercise mutual respect for others' opinions. Avoid comments that are profane, offensive, defamatory, inappropriate, or otherwise objectionable.

Do not post comments that are off-topic.

Do not post the same comment multiple times, or otherwise distribute spam.

Do not post or comment with gifs.

We do not accept cyberbullying and/or posts or comments that are discriminatory, political, racist, sexist, abusive, profane, violent, obscene, spam, contain falsehoods or are wildly off-topic, or that libel, incite, or threaten attacks on students, staff, guests or other individuals.

We also do not permit messages selling products or promoting commercial or other ventures.

You participate at your own risk, taking personal responsibility for your comments, your username, and any information provided. We reserve the right to delete comments or topics and even ban users if needed. Please be aware that all content and posts are bound by Facebook's Terms of Use.

Pullman Public Schools encourages user interaction on its social pages but is not responsible for comments or wall postings made by visitors to the page. Additionally, the appearance of external links, as posted by fans of this page or other Facebook users, does not constitute endorsement on behalf of Pullman Public Schools. In most, if not all cases, external links posted by fans will be removed.

You should not provide private or personal information (phone, email, addresses etc.) regarding yourself or others on this page. Any posts or comments containing personal information of this nature will be deleted.

By posting or commenting as described above, users give Pullman Public Schools the right to remove comments for any reason, including but not limited to comments that violate this Terms of Use. Comments are also subject to Facebook's Terms of Use.

We comply with all federal and state regulations regarding the online safety and privacy of minors. We will not knowingly post, solicit, or communicate in any way through this page with children under the age of 13.

Comments posted on this page do not in any way reflect the opinions of Pullman Public Schools.
